

EXHIBITS & DISPLAY

CLOTHESLINE PROJECT

The Create-A-Shirt workshop is an expressive arts activity that has become part of the tradition of the "The Clothesline Project."

These workshops are offered in multiple public settings throughout the community and are an opportunity for participants to give voice to their experience of sexual assault while supported and witnessed by a trained Victim Advocate.

Community Violence Solutions

Community Violence Solutions (CVS) is dedicated to working in partnership with the community to end sexual assault, human trafficking and family violence through prevention, crisis services, and treatment.

Formerly called Rape Crisis Center, CVS was founded by the Greater Richmond Interfaith Program in 1974 and incorporated as a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization in 1977.

Since then, CVS has expanded its services to all of Contra Costa and Marin Counties.
